Los Angeles World Affairs Council

July 23, 1973

Mr. William E. Colby
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

On behalf of the Officers and Directors of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, I am delighted to extend to you a most cordial invitation to address a luncheon or dinner meeting of the Council. The date, of course, would be made mutually convenient sometime during the coming fall, winter, or spring.

With a membership of more than 6,000 leading citizens of the vital Southern California area, the Council constitutes one of the nation's major forums for the discussion of issues of international importance. During its 20 years of major activity, the Council has held significant meetings in honor of many of the world's leading statesmen, and we would be particularly pleased to have you on our podium.

We also have a thriving division in Orange County, and we would be equally happy to arrange for a dinner meeting in your honor there in addition to Los Angeles. As you may know, Orange County is the fastest growing area in the United States in terms of population and new industry.

Mr. Edmonde A. Haddad, the Executive Director of the Council, will make all arrangements for the meeting. He may be reached at the Council's address, listed herein, and will gladly assist with any of your plans. I hope that you will be able to accept our invitation, and I look forward to hosting you. Very best wishes.

Sincerely,

Thomas V. Jones
President
